

A SERVICE OF THE WORD TO MARK THE CENTENARY OF THE END OF THE WAR OF INDEPENDENCE IN IRELAND

Introduction

The truce in the War of Independence / Anglo-Irish War on 11 July 1921 brought an end to two-and-a-half years of guerrilla conflict in Ireland. It cannot be denied that this had been a difficult period for church members many of whom were victims of personal, sometimes fatal, injuries, or damage to their property. At the same time, prominent church members, including Sam Maguire, Ernest Blythe, Erskine Childers, Albina Broderick and Robert Barton, made a significant contribution to the achievement of Irish independence.

The subsequent agreement of the Anglo-Irish Treaty in December 1921 and the creation of the newly independent Irish Free State as a dominion of the Commonwealth was a wrench for many Church members in breaking ancestral ties with Britain. The Church of Ireland Gazette noted honestly that many would not ‘regard the change which is impending with any great enthusiasm’, but recognised the community’s willingness to accept the new situation and ‘give their whole-hearted and active support to the Irish Free State’. Though never accounting for greater than five per cent of the population of independent Ireland the Church of Ireland is proud of its contribution to making the state what it is today, including having two of its members serve as Head of State.

Although Ireland was partitioned politically one hundred years ago, the churches have remained as important structures helping to retain connections between their members on both sides of the border.

Gathering as God's People

GREETING

We meet in the presence of God who knows our needs, hears our cries, feels our pain, and heals our wounds.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

God is our refuge and strength; a very present help in trouble. Psalm 46.1

Appropriate words of welcome and introduction may be said.

BIDDING PRAYER

Almighty God,

you call us into a common fellowship of solidarity and peace;

draw nearer to us as we commemorate the centenary of the end of the War of Independence.

As we reflect on the horrors of conflict and division, may you move us always to work for peace and justice in this country and beyond and enable us to heal troubled memories and divisions of the past;

this we ask through the Prince of Peace, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A HYMN MAY BE SUNG

Penitence

Christ our passover lamb has been sacrificed for us.

Let us therefore rejoice by putting away all malice and evil and confessing our sins with a sincere and true heart. 1 Corinthians 5: 7, 8

or

Let us come to the Lord, who is full of compassion, and acknowledge our transgressions in penitence and faith.

Lord God,

you sent your Son to reconcile us to yourself and to one another.

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Lord Jesus,

you heal the wounds of sin and division.

Christ, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Holy Spirit,
through you we put to death the sins of the body and live.
Lord, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

*Other short penitential sentences may be inserted between the petitions of the Kyries.
The Beatitudes (BCP pages 223-224) may also be used*

If a priest is officiating he/she pronounces this absolution:

Almighty God,
who forgives all who truly repent,
Have mercy on you,
pardon and deliver you from all your sins,
confirm and strengthen you in all goodness,
and keep you in eternal life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

If no priest is present the following is said:

thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

Going Out As God's People

CONCLUDING PRAYER

We ask you to so guard and guide all who reflect on the past, that we may model our society on the image of Christ and to his glory,

in whom we trust and through whom we pray. Amen.
