JUBILATE DEO
(Psalm 100)

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands:
serve the Lord with gladness, and come
before his presence with a song.

Be ye sure the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and speak good of his Name.

For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is
everlasting: and his truth endureth
from generation to generation.

INTRODUCTION

Following on from my transcripts of the Barragh and Bunclody (Newtownbarry) registers, the Rector invited me to produce a transcript of the earliest Clonegal register; this document is the result. As with all documents of this nature the original should be consulted to confirm that entries have been transcribed and indexed accurately.

The following specific points should be borne in mind when using the transcript:

Dates All dates have been standardised as follows; day in numbers, month in three letters (abbreviated as necessary), year.

Legibility and Spelling In cases of doubt, the spelling of surnames has been checked against other entries in the index; variations in the spelling of the same surname have been noted. Indecipherable details are marked with a ?. Information which is missing due to page edge damage is indicated by ~.

Additional Information Marginal notes and comments from the Register appear in the text or as footnotes.

Chronological Discrepancies Entries out of chronological order by more than a week or so are in italics.

The Index The index lists in alphabetical order all persons who were baptised, married and buried at Clonegal over the period 1792-1831. Where circumstantial evidence points to entries for more than one event for the same person, they have been included on the same line in the index. In the absence of any such evidence they have been listed separately. Abbreviated Christian names have been transcribed exactly as they appear in the Register.

Transcriber's Observations Although the register has suffered considerable page edge damage over the years, it has been possible to decipher almost all the entries. All notes regarding the annual submission of register extracts have been included (in the baptism section) to aid the approximate dating of entries for which the actual date is missing.

ST FIAAC'S CHURCH, CLONEGAL alias MOYACOMB

HISTORY OF THE PARISH AND CHURCH

Clonegal or Moyacomb is an ancient parish which straddles the Cos Carlow, Wexford and Wicklow. The parish covers some 17,400 acres, contains the town of Clonegal and the village of Johnstown and consists of the following townlands:

Co Carlow - Ballyredmond, Clonegal, Clonogan, Coolroe, Laney, Monoughran and Kilcarry, Orchard (5,900 a).

Co Wexford - Abbeydown, Ballynastraw, Ballyshonogue, Carhill, Coolmeela, Corrow/Corragh, Drumderry, Garryhasten (5,800 a).

Co Wicklow - Ballisland, Coolruss, Drummin, Militia and Ballinavortha, Minmore, Park, Rahingraney, Urelands (5,700 a).

The original church was founded at the time of St Patrick by St Fiaac, who is supposed to have been ordained by St Patrick himself. The church was built on a mound, which formed the base of a fortress, surrounded by a fosse (ditch) and a rath (curtain wall), in the picturesque valley of the River Derry. This structure was in use until the early years of the 19th century, when it was agreed, after several years of discussion (1815-1818), to build a new church in the village. The size of the proposed site being insufficient, it was then decided to build the new church in the existing churchyard. The building was erected in 1819 at a cost of £1300, loaned by the Board of First Fruits and repayable over seventeen years. In the 1830s divine service was celebrated twice on Sundays in summer and once on Sundays during the rest of the year. The Sacrament was administered monthly and on the festivals.

The church was extended by a chancel, originally proposed at a Select Vestry meeting in 1883 and eventually constructed in 1905, which occasioned a general refurbishment and many gifts, including:

A Caen stone pulpit, presented by Mrs Robertson of Huntingdon Castle; a carved oak chair for the new Caen stone prayer desk, given by Miss Robertson, Miss Haines and Mr William Haines; a brass desk for the Communion Table, given by Miss Snagge and Miss Ella MacMahon.

A consignment of wood to panel the new chancel was sent from Vancouver by Mrs Ferrier Beasley (formerly Miss Florence Durdin), but it was seized and confiscated at Vladivostock by the Russians during the Russo-Japanese War as contraband of war.

The organ was moved from the gallery into the church in 1943. The new graveyard, a piece of land formerly owned by Denis Doyle and given by James Hickey, was consecrated by the Bishop of Ossory, Ferns and Leighlin in 1945. A storm in April 1947 caused damage to the tower and the roof, resulting in a further restoration in 1952. The church car park was extended in 1989 and the church redecorated inside and out in 1993. Up to 1907 the Rector lived in Ballyredmond House. Between 1907 and 1985 his residence was the Glebe House, Clonegal, now known as Clonegal House. The parish was united to the Bunclody Union in 1985 following the retirement of Canon Benson.

JUBILATE DEO
(Psalm 100)

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands:
serve the Lord with gladness, and come
before his presence with a song.

Be ye sure the Lord he is God: it is he
that hath made us, and not we ourselves;
we are his people, and the sheep of his
pasture.

O go your way into his gates with
thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and speak
good of his Name.

For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting: and his truth endureth from
generation to generation.

From the Order for Morning Prayer, The Book of Common Prayer
(Church of Ireland)

INTRODUCTION

Following on from my first transcript of the earliest Clonegal register, the Rector invited me to produce a further transcript of the Baptism Register up to 1903; this document is the result. As with all documents of this nature the original should be consulted to confirm that entries have been transcribed and indexed accurately.

The following specific points should be borne in mind when using the transcript:

Dates All dates have been standardised as follows; day in numbers, month in three letters (abbreviated as necessary), year.

Legibility and Spelling In cases of doubt, the spelling of surnames has been checked against other entries in the index; variations in the spelling of the same surname have been noted. Indecipherable details are marked with a ?.

Additional Information Marginal notes and comments from the Register appear in the text or as footnotes.

Chronological Discrepancies Entries out of chronological order by more than a week or so are in italics.

The Index The index lists in alphabetical order all persons who were baptised at Clonegal over the period 1831-1903. Abbreviated Christian names have been transcribed exactly as they appear in the Register.

Transcriber's Observations The dates of birth and baptism have been transposed inadvertently in a small number of entries; they have been corrected without comment in this transcript. An incorrect date of birth has been recorded in several other entries; the incorrect date is indicated in bold. A significant proportion of entries (especially in the 1840s) were not numbered; their entry numbers are shown in 8 pt eg 217 to aid identification. An error in 1868 means that the entry numbers 450-499 are repeated; the second sequence is also shown in 8 pt eg 450 to aid identification.

JUBILATE DEO
(Psalm 100)

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands:
serve the Lord with gladness, and come
before his presence with a song.

Be ye sure the Lord he is God: it is he
that hath made us, and not we ourselves;
we are his people, and the sheep of his
pasture.

O go your way into his gates with
thanksgiving, and into his courts with
praise: be thankful unto him, and speak
good of his Name.

For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is
everlasting: and his truth endureth from
generation to generation.

(Church of Ireland)

INTRODUCTION

Following on from my transcripts of the other Clonegal registers, the Rector invited me to produce a transcript of the Marriage Register up to 1906; this document is the result. As with all documents of this nature the original should be consulted to confirm that entries have been transcribed and indexed accurately.

The following specific points should be borne in mind when using the transcript:

Dates All dates have been standardised as follows; day in numbers, month in three letters (abbreviated as necessary), year.

Legibility and Spelling In cases of doubt, the spelling of surnames has been checked against other entries in the index; variations in the spelling of the same surname have been noted. Indecipherable details are marked with a ?.

Additional Information Marginal notes and comments from the Register appear in the text or as footnotes.

Illiteracy Those who made a mark in the register are indicated by an "x" after their name.

Chronological Discrepancies Entries out of chronological order by more than a week or so are in italics.

The Index The index lists in alphabetical order all persons who were married at Clonegal over the period 1831-1906. Abbreviated Christian names have been transcribed exactly as they appear in the Register.

Transcriber's Observations Despite the introduction of new style marriage registers in 1845, Clonegal Parish continued to use an old style one for the Parish copy of marriage entries. Entries submitted to the Registrar General for Marriages must have been submitted in the correct format; hence family historians should be able to obtain additional information on entries of interest from the Registrar General.

JUBILATE DEO
(Psalm 100)

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands:
serve the Lord with gladness, and come
before his presence with a song.

Be ye sure the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we
ourselves; we are his people, and the
sheep of his pasture.

O go your way into his gates with
thanksgiving, and into his courts with
praise: be thankful unto him, and speak
good of his Name.

For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is
everlasting: and his truth endureth
from generation to generation.

INTRODUCTION

Following on from my transcripts of the other Clonegal registers, the Rector invited me to produce a transcript of the Burial Register up to 1903; this document is the result. As with all documents of this nature the original should be consulted to confirm that entries have been transcribed and indexed accurately.

The following specific points should be borne in mind when using the transcript:

Dates All dates have been standardised as follows; day in numbers, month in three letters (abbreviated as necessary), year. Any apparent errors have been shown in bold.

Legibility and Spelling In cases of doubt, the spelling of surnames has been checked against other entries in the index; variations in the spelling of the same surname have been noted. Indecipherable details are marked with a ?.

Additional Information Marginal notes and comments from the Register appear in the text or as footnotes.

Chronological Discrepancies Entries out of chronological order by more than a week or so are in italics.

The Index The index lists in alphabetical order all persons who were buried at Clonegal over the period 1832-1903. Abbreviated Christian names have been transcribed exactly as they appear in the Register.

Transcriber's Observations Most of the earlier entries in the Register are unnumbered and have been transcribed as such.
