JUBILATE DEO
(Psalm 100)

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands:
serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song.

Be ye sure the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and speak
good of his Name.

For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting: and his truth endureth
from generation to generation.

INTRODUCTION

Whilst researching the history of my family in the Public Record Office at Kew, I noticed a reference to this Register of Baptisms (WO 156/5) in the guide to War Office files. It is the only Irish register in WO 156. I thought that the information in the Register should be more widely available; this transcript is the result. As with all documents of this nature the original should be consulted to confirm that entries have been transcribed and indexed accurately.

The following specific points should be borne in mind when using the transcript:

Dates All dates have been standardised as follows; day in numbers, month in three letters (abbreviated as necessary), year.

Additional Information Marginal notes and comments from the Registers appear in the text or as footnotes.

Transcriber's Observations The entries are not in chronological order and include a number of baptisms performed by the Rector of Fermoy in the Parish Church. They have been transcribed twice, firstly in entry number order (pages 1-3) and secondly in chronological order (pages 5-7 in italics). Entry Nos 10 and 21 appear to refer to the same event but with different surnames.
