MORNING PRAYER AND EVENING PRAYER
FOR USE ON SUNDAY

The Gathering of God's People

THE GREETING

Stand

The minister greets the people:

Grace, mercy and peace
from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ be with you all
and also with you.

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

or, from Easter Day to the Day of Pentecost Christ is risen!

The Lord is risen indeed! Alleluia!

The minister may introduce the service with these or other suitable words:

We have come together
in the name of Christ
to offer our praise and thanksgiving,
to hear and receive God's holy word,
to seek the forgiveness of our sins,
and to pray for the needs of the world,
that by the power of the Holy Spirit
we may give ourselves to the service of God.

O Lord, open our lips,
and our mouth will proclaim your praise.

Let us worship the Lord.
All praise to his name.

AN ORDER FOR
MORNING PRAYER AND EVENING PRAYER
FOR USE ON SUNDAY

The Ordering of the Service

1. SEASONALLY APPROPRIATE MATERIAL

Seasonally appropriate material approved by the House of Bishops and published by the Liturgical Advisory Committee may be used for the Greeting, Penitence and The Prayers of the People.

2. THE GATHERING OF GOD'S PEOPLE

Announcements should be made before the service begins. An opening hymn or song may be sung before The Greeting.

3. PENITENCE

The prayers of penitence may take place after the sermon during the seasons of Advent and Lent.

4. PROCLAIMING AND RECEIVING THE WORD

At least two of the readings and the psalm for the principal service of the day from the Revised Common Lectionary are used. The first reading should normally be from the Old Testament unless the Revised Common Lectionary provides otherwise.

Where two readings are used the second reading is the Gospel reading of the day.

Where three readings are used, the third reading is the Gospel reading of the day.

5. A Collect of the Word is used at the end of the readings or after the Sermon. These collects are available in the worship resources section of the Church of Ireland website.

6. THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

If the Collect of the Day and the Lord's Prayer are not used at the end of the Prayers of the People they are used before the Dismissal.

This or another seasonally appropriate prayer is used:

Blessed are you, Sovereign God, Creator of all,
to you be glory and praise for ever.
You founded the earth in the beginning and the heavens are the work of your hands.
In the fulness of time, you made us in your image,
and in these last days you have spoken to us
in your Son Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh.
As we rejoice in the gift of your presence among us
let the light of your love always shine in our hearts, your Spirit ever renew our lives and your praises ever be on our lips.

The prayer ends with these words:

Blessed be God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
Blessed be God for ever.

A hymn may be sung.

*The prayers of penitence may take place after the sermon
during the seasons of Advent and Lent.*

The Confession is introduced either with the following or other seasonally appropriate words:

If we say we have no sin we deceive ourselves, and the truth us not in us. If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1 John 1: 8,9

Let us kneel and confess our sins to God our Father.

O God, our loving Father in heaven,
we confess that we have sinned against you;
we have broken your commandments;
we have often been selfish,
and we have not loved you as we should.
For these, and all our sins, forgive us, we pray:
through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Or this form may be used:

God our Father, we come to you in sorrow for our sins.
For turning away from you,
and ignoring your will for our lives;
Father, forgive us:
save us and help us.

For behaving just as we wish,
without thinking of you;
Father, forgive us:
save us and help us.

For failing you by what we do,
and think and say;
Father, forgive us:
save us and help us.

For letting ourselves be drawn away from you
by temptations in the world about us;
Father, forgive us:
save us and help us.

For living as if we were ashamed
to belong to your Son;
Father, forgive us:
save us and help us.

The priest pronounces the absolution:

May the Father of all mercies
cleans you from your sins,
and restore you in his image
to the praise and glory of his name,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

PENITENCE

If no priest is present the absolution is omitted and the following prayer may be said:

May the God of love
bring us back to himself,
forgive us our sins,
and assure us of his eternal love
in Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The minister says

Your word is a lantern to my feet
and a light upon our path. cf Psalm 119.105

O Lord, your word is everlasting:
it stands firm for ever in the heavens. cf Psalm 119.89

Let us then receive the word of the Lord.
so may the light of your presence shine into our hearts.

The Response to God's Word

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come again to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

This affirmation or a scriptural affirmation of faith may be used instead of the Apostles' Creed.

Do you believe and trust in God the Father,
who made the world?

I believe and trust in him

Do you believe and trust in his Son Jesus Christ, who redeemed mankind?

I believe and trust in him.

Do you believe and trust in the Holy Spirit who gives life to the people of God?

I believe and trust in him.

This is the faith of the Church.

This is our faith.

we believe and trust in One God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

The Prayers of the People

Either of the following, or other seasonally appropriate prayers and intercessions, may be used.

for the unity of all peoples,
and for our salvation,

let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

and for the wisdom and will to conserve it,
let us pray to the Lord.

For the aged and infirm,
for the widowed and orphans, for the sick and suffering, [for ...] and for all in any need,

let us pray to the Lord.

For ...

let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the dying,
for those who mourn [the death of ...],
for the faithful whom we entrust to the Lord in hope,
as we look forward to the day
when we share the fullness of the resurrection,
let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

Rejoicing in the communion of all the saints,
let us commend ourselves,
and one another, and all our life, to God.

Silence is kept.

For yours is the majesty, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit;
yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory, now and for ever.

Amen.

or

Let us bring before God
our prayers of intercession and commitment:
Blessed are you, eternal God,
to be praised and glorified for ever.

Hear us as we pray for your holy Church throughout the world:
make us all one, that the world may believe.

Grant that every member of the Church
may truly and humbly serve you:

that the life of Christ may be revealed in us.

Strengthen all who minister in Christ's name:
give them courage to proclaim your Gospel.

Inspire and lead those who hold authority
in the nations of the world:

guide them in the ways of justice and peace.

Make us alive to the needs of our community:
help us to share each other's joys and burdens.

Look with kindness on our homes and families:
grant that your love may grow in our hearts.

Deepen our compassion
for all who suffer from sickness, grief or trouble:
in your presence may they find their strength.

We remember those who have died:
Father, into your hands we entrust them.

We praise you for all your saints
who have entered your eternal glory:
bring us all to share in your heavenly kingdom.
